

LESSON 9-: The Land Of Promise Revealed To Abram

1.0 Text

Genesis:13:14-18

2.0 Preambles

Abram's active and vibrant altar could only make the Promise more vivid and the Covenant more real than ever before. The altar brought him to a closer relationship with God, with a deeper understanding of God. He began to learn, to walk and work in that understanding.

3.0 Discussions / Interactions

- "and the Lord said unto Abram, after that Lot was Separated from him,....."
- Gen:13vs14. In what ways could Lot have been a hindrance to Abram's relationship with God?
- In what ways could God have clearly spoken to Abram?
 - What is the significance of the relocation of Abram's tents (Gen:13:18) after God spoke to him?
 - What is the significance of Abram's new altar built unto the Lord in the plain of Mamre (Gen:13:18)?
